DESIGN HAVEN

Set in the quaint bylanes of Chimbai Village, Payal Khandwala's second Flagship Store is a magnificent two-storey bungalow designed to impress. Payal herself has designed the space, featuring carbon stained cement walls, Wenge flooring and custom-made furniture. The space houses the label's complete range—classic colour blocked silhouettes, brass and leather accessories from their sister brand, tachi, limited-edition hand woven brocades, handwoven silk saris and bridal and festive wear.

Reader's enclave

Book collectors, readers and enthusiasts, Knock on Wood brings you the perfect storehouse to hold your precious collection of novels. This piece of art is a sight to behold. The doors have been painstakingly created by joining small pieces of turned wood.

The brass body and the specially created "distressed" red surface on the inside adds to the charisma of the charming façade.
